

EMPOWER YOUR COMMUNITY THROUGH FINANCIAL LITERACY!

Do you work for or volunteer with a local nonprofit, social service agency, library, faith-based group, or community organization? If so, join Georgia Watch for a free one-day “Train-the-Trainer” workshop in your region. You’ll learn best practices for educating your clients, patrons, or community members on these crucial topics: The Basics of Banking, Personal Finance, Loans and Credit, Expensive and Predatory Financial Products, Debt and Debt Collection.

As a participant, you will receive training, material, and ongoing support empowering you to conduct educational workshops for your own community. Through these workshops, your community members will develop the knowledge and skills they need to manage their personal finances and maintain a basic bank account.

LOCATIONS AND DATES

- | | |
|---------------------|--------------|
| • Southwest Atlanta | May 17, 2017 |
| • Gainesville | May 18, 2017 |
| • Macon | May 22, 2017 |
| • Rome | May 23, 2017 |
| • Brunswick | May 25, 2017 |
| • Albany | June 1, 2017 |
| • Smyrna | June 6, 2017 |

Georgia Watch is a nonprofit organization working to protect and empower Georgia consumers on matters that impact their quality of life through education, advocacy and policy development. Visit www.georgiawatch.org.

RESERVE YOUR SPOT NOW

If you are interested in this training and willing to conduct workshops in your community, please register as soon as possible at <http://www.georgiawatch.org/protect-yourself/financial-protection/apply/>.

Breakfast and lunch will be provided. Space is limited.

Contact Trey Cason at (404) 525-1085 or tcason@georgiawatch.org.